

The Traverse

Life's journey, beautifully balanced.

Balance. Movement. Harmony.

In the heart of the prairies, where land and sky stretch endlessly, these townhomes tell a story of movement, connection, and possibility. Designed as part of the Journey Collection, each home reflects the spirit of personal exploration – whether you're drawn to the edges where the winds shape the horizon, or the center where balance and harmony are found.

This is a place where life's stories find both direction and belonging. It's a sanctuary to create moments that align with who you are.

Architectural Style - Edge Contemporary

Defined by its pitched rooflines, strong horizontality, and overhangs, this style lives in unison with the vast open prairies. Expansive windows frame ever-changing skies while natural materials - stone, wood, and muted earth tones - ground the home firmly in place. Clean lines meet functional flow, creating a balance of elegance and durability.

The corner units are defined by light, views, expanse and the dynamic flow of nature.

At the centre, these units offer harmony, stability, and connection. Both offer light filled interiors that create a balance between private retreat and shared living.

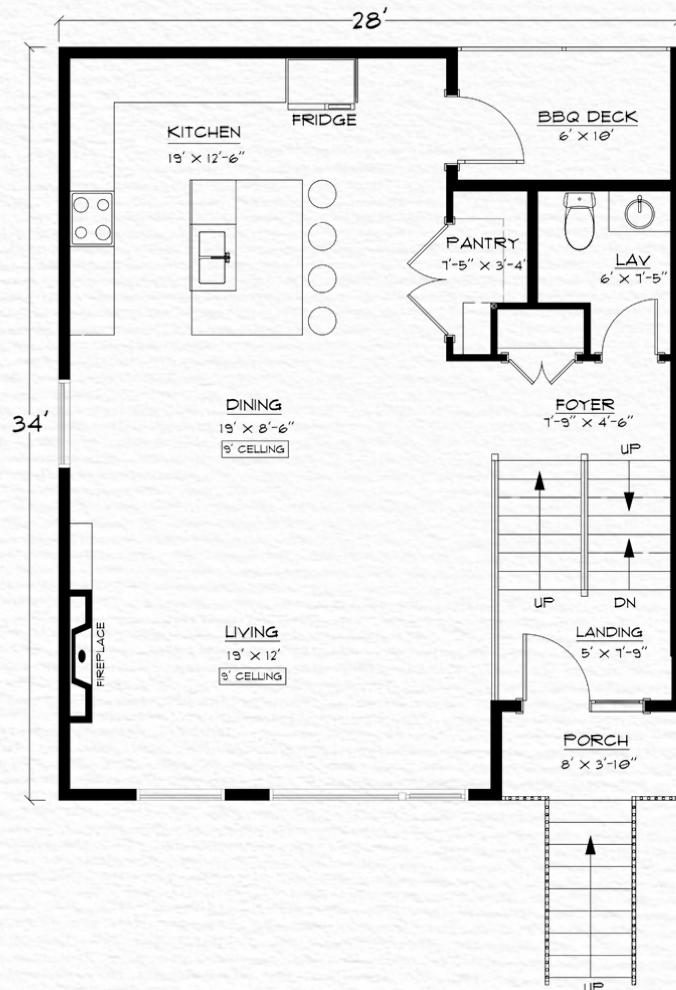

These homes speak to those who value community and continuity. The steady path within the journey.
