THE NEW INDUSTRY COMPASS 2025: TECHNOLOGY MEETS TOURISM FOR A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

In 2025, OMNIBUSREVUE presents the newly launched industry compass, which for the first time combines the important topics of "Sustainable Tourism & Environmental Protection" with the innovative power of the technology industry. In this OMNIBUSREVUE special, we bridge the gap between technological advances and the challenges facing the tourism industry - with a clear focus on sustainable mobility and climate-friendly solutions.

The aim of this issue is to do justice to both worlds: We not only offer a comprehensive editorial overview of current trends and developments, but also enable our partners to position themselves in advertorials with future forecasts and innovative solutions. Their expertise can be made visible both in the print edition and digitally on omnibusrevue.de.

In addition, we can also present your company contribution in the form of an online advertorial on omnibusrevue.de in the appropriate environment.

The OMNIBUSREVUE special "Sustainable Tourism & Environmental Protection" will be published as a "magazine-within-a-magazine" in issue 5/2025.
