

Paradigmer i økonomifaget — Tid for en revolusjon?
Approaches to Economics: Time for a revolution?

Symposium i anledning av Knut Anton Morks 80-årsdag
Symposium on the occasion of Knut Anton Mork's 80th birthday

Sentralen, Øvre Slottgate 3, Oslo, 21. mai/May 21 2026

Program

- 08:30 Kaffe, croissants og registrering/Coffe, croissants, and registration
Morning session in Norwegian
- 09:00 Knut Anton Mork: Velkommen og lansering av bok:
Fra dogmer til vitenskap — Refleksjoner etter 50 år som økonom
Welcoming remarks and presentation of book, From dogma to science: Reflections after 50 years as an economist (in Norwegian)
- 09:05 J. S. Bach: Preludium fra Cello-suite nr. 1. Ellen Margrete Flesjø, Ssense Trio
- 09:15 Sentralbanksjef/Governor Ida Wolden Bache, Norges Bank:
Forskningsbaserte modeller i pengepolitiske beslutninger
Research Based Models in Monetary Policy Making
- 09:45 Franz Schubert: Trio for strykere i b-dur, D.471. Ssense Trio
- 10:00 Sjøføkonom Marius Gonsholt Hov, Handelsbanken:
Makroøkonomiske modeller i finansbransjen
Macroeconomic Models in the Financial Industry
- 10:45 Kaffepause/Coffee break
- 11:00 Stipendiat/PhD Candidate Frida Nymark Engelstad, NTNU:
En modell basert på optimaliserende atferd: Forvaltning og bruk av penger fra Oljefondet
A Model Based on Optimizing Behavior: Managing and spending Money in the Oil Fund
- 11:30 Lunsj/Lunch Afternoon session in English
- 12:45 Professor Håvard Helland, Heriot-Watt University:
The Big Picture of macroeconomics: Geopolitics, climate, and the environment
- 13:30 Professor J. Doyne Farmer, Oxford University:
Agent modeling, a radically different method of macroeconomic research
Based on his recent book: Making Sense of Chaos, Penguin 2025
- 15:00 Coffee break
- 15:30 Knut Anton Mork: Reflections after more than a half century as macroeconomist
- 16:15 Panel discussion, participants TBA
- 17:00 End