Ultimate Tour

This excursion takes you to the hidden treasures of Tetiaroa atoll, led by a naturalist guide from the Tetiaroa Society team.

A boat trip takes you to the motus (islets) to the east and north of the island, where you can discover the atoll's different ecosystems.

The «primary forest», stingrays, fish, sharks and seabirds will all be highlights of the day.

Finally, weather permitting, enjoy a relaxing swim in the Queen's Bath, offering a magnificent panoramic view of the entire Tetiaroa atoll.

The tour lasts 2h30.

Rimatu'u Excursion

Discover the origins of the Tetiaroa legend!

A boat trip takes you to Rimatu'u motu (islet), where you can learn about the atoll's economic, religious, and spiritual importance for the early Polynesians.

This tour is a walk through the ancient village of Rimatu'u, where you'll be told the history of Tetiaroa, from Pomare royals to Marlon Brando.

Don't forget your hat, sunscreen, mosquito repellent and water bottle!

The tour lasts 2h30.

Bird Discovery Tour

Tetiaroa is a nesting site for seabirds and an incredible observation site for birdwatchers.

With Tetiaroa Society naturalist guides, observe a variety of bird species including gannets, frigate birds, terns, noddies and egrets.

To leave them undisturbed, we recommend walking in shallow water along the shoreline of the Tahuna Iiti motu.

Discover the ornithological wealth of Tetiaroa atoll.

Discovery Trail

In the heart of motu Onetahi, take a walk through the forest to discover the distinctive vegetation typical of a motu, with a naturalist guide from the Tetiaroa Society.

With 39 native plant species, fascinating history and archeological sites, Tetiaroa is one of the richest of French Polynesia's 78 atolls.

You can also discover our nourishing garden, as well as the beehives that produce honey served daily in our bars and restaurants.

It's a pleasant walk that you can do on your own or with a guide.

Motu Onetahi is sure to surprise you with its diversity and beauty!

Archeological Tour

If you're interested in Polynesian history, archeology, spirituality and culture, this walk on motu Onetahi is for you!

With a Tetiaroa Society guide, discover Polynesian culture through a sacred site: an open-air temple called a marae in Tahitian.

This tour can be done cycling or on golf cart and will help you understand the origins of the first Polynesians, and their link to the sacred and spiritual. The guide will explain the symbolism of these places, how they were built, and their importance for Polynesians.

Don't forget your hat and water bottle!

The Green Tour

Go behind the scenes to discover how the research and scientific studies carried out by the Tetiaroa Society come to fruition in the life-size laboratory that is Tetiaroa atoll. The Brando demonstrates how a resort can deliver luxury without compromise while offering guests an environmentally-friendly stay.

Highlights include visiting the SWAC seawater air-conditioning system used to cool interior spaces, the solar panels that supply the resort with electricity, and the sorting center, vegetable garden, beehives and eco-station.

Due to the technical terms used, this tour is not recommended for children under 16.

Tahiti Nui Helicopters

3/3

If you wish to cancel a service with TAHITI NUI HELICOPTERS

Cancellation by Tahiti Nui Helicopters: the Pilot in command of the helicopter is at all times fully responsible for its operation. If, at his discretion, the Pilot considers that the safety of the flight is compromised (for meteorological and/or technical reasons), he may decide to terminate the flight at any time or refuse to commence it. The Customer shall not hold Tahiti Nui Helicopters liable for any direct, indirect or consequential damages or expenses resulting from the termination or refusal of a flight.

If the number of passengers booked on a shared flight is insufficient, Tahiti Nui Helicopters will propose to the customer to postpone the flight. If the flight cannot be rescheduled, the customer will be refunded the full cost of the service.

Cancellation by the customer: The following charges may apply:

- Cancellation more than 72 hours in advance: 10% of the price of the service withheld
- Cancellation between 72 and 24 hours: 50% of the price of the service retained
- Cancellation within 24 hours: 100% of the price of the service retained

However, fees may be waived if a medical certificate is presented to Tahiti Nui Helicopters by the Customer.
