JUNIOR SUITES

Our 72 spacious suites and guest rooms run along the palm-shaded, white-sand Surf Beach and rise up the rocky promontory that gives the resort its name.

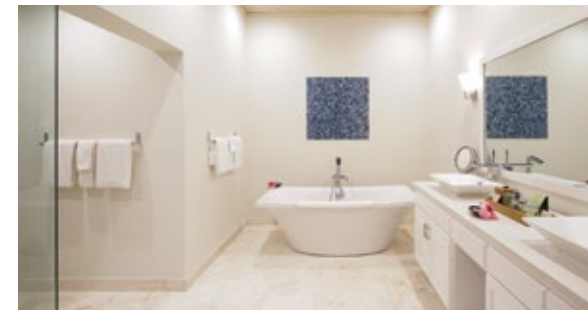

Our 40 Junior Suites are spread through three-story villas on the resort's Surf Beach, a stone's throw from the water. Junior Suits feature a sunken living room with sea-grass sofas and armchairs, accented with blues and greens that mirror the colors outside. Floor-to-ceiling glass doors lead on to verandas and terraces overlooking the sea. The grand marble-and white-tile bathrooms have double sinks, big tubs and large, open-walled showers.

HULFORD COLLECTION

TERRACE SUITE

Our unique Terrace Suite is the most popular choice for newly-weds thanks to its private location at the very top of the bluff and breathtaking views over the beach, Morris Bay and the Caribbean Sea.

White walls, bright sea-blue fabrics, one-of-a-kind furnishings and glowing woods give the room a sense of calm, timeless sophistication. Its large 567-square-foot terrace with infinity edge plunge pool and romantic daybed is the ideal spot for private relaxation and dining.

CLIFF SUITE

Tucked into the hill side, this refurbished suite with spacious living room and large patio off from living room with infinity soaking pool with unobstructed views of Grace Bay beach. Separate bedroom with king-size bed, marble bathroom and second terrace overlooking the surf beach.

Luxury Travel Mom

"For those of you who know and love this property, fear not, it's the same, just better. Sort of like Jane Fonda. If you've never been to Curtain Bluff I will tell you this, it's the only property I have continually returned to year after year."

GRACE BAY/MORRIS BAY SUITE

The most luxurious of Curtain Bluff's accommodations, these 2 generously scaled suites occupy the third floor of a Caribbean-style villa, right on the resort's "surf" beach.

Both suites are luxuriously furnished with blue-marble bathrooms, colonial furniture, richly colored fabrics and lush palms. The bedroom and adjoining living room lead out on to a sweeping veranda with sun-chairs and a private plunge pool, the perfect place for private sunbathing or cocktails under the stars

Travel Weekly

"I also was a bit worried that the resort's recent $13 million renovation would glam up this classic Caribbean property to the extent it would snuff out its character and traditions. I was wrong....my return to Curtain Bluff felt much like returning home..."

RESTAURANTS

If our guest questionnaires are anything to go by, the food is one of the biggest reasons our loyal guests keep coming back year after year. Imaginative, varied and simply delicious, it has been praised by culinary magazines from Gourmet to Northeast Flavor. And, especially since all meals are included in the room rate, it's what truly sets our value apart from our competitors.

Like our other alcoholic beverages, our excellent house wines are included in the room rate. But for those aficionados looking for a truly special wine, Curtain Bluff keeps one of the finest cellars in the Caribbean, stocked with over 400 carefully selected wines from 10 countries, all priced between $US 50 and $US 2,000.

ACTIVITIES

Time moves more slowly at Curtain Bluff. There is room in every day to play a set of tennis or squash, scuba dive or snorkel on the reef, skim across the bay on a Hobie Cat or Paddle board, work out on the elliptical bike, take a yoga class, get a team together to play basketball, or a round of shuffleboard or bocce. The CEEBEE Kids Club, created so our younger guests can make friends and experience the resort on their own terms. Complimentary 5 days a week. All these activities and more are included in our above and beyond all inclusive rate.

WEDDINGS

Curtain Bluff Antigua is the ideal setting for an authentic Caribbean destination wedding, or celebration of any kind. It's large enough to accommodate big groups and there's room for everyone to spread out to follow their own interests. Yet the intimate resort is small enough that you will never get lost in the crowd. We're happy to discuss extra events just for your party (cocktail parties, sporting challenges, etc) and extend special discounts.

Wedding Bells (CA)

"Charming boutique hotels abound in Antigua, but none compare to Curtain Bluff. This unpretentious all-inclusive five-star resort on the island's south coast, a favourite hideaway of rock gods like Keith Richards and Eric Clapton, features flawless ocean views from every room and suite."

GROUPS & INCENTIVES

The most contemporary all inclusive luxury hotel for Caribbean incentive travel, Curtain Bluff Resort offers 1,500 square feet of flexible event space. Our sound proof room features individual controls for air conditioning, sound, music, telephones, multiple electric / electronic outlets and high speed Internet access. Among Caribbean area conferences Curtain Bluff provides the cream of the crop for mixing business with pleasure in a stunningly beautiful setting, with first-class amenities.

- Computers and networking capabilities – High speed wired and wireless internet access in meeting room and property wide.
- Expert, on-site staff – to bring your ideas to life and assist with any IT related issues.
- High tech equipment – Cameras, multi-image presentations, data projectors, digital audio and more are available for a premium.
- Meeting planning – is also available for a premium.

Wall Street Journal

"For low-key luxury, stay at the beach front, all-inclusive Curtain Bluff, a half-hour away, on the southwest coast. After checking in, enjoy afternoon tea with sea views on the veranda, or, if you crave something stronger, a punch made with smooth, local Cavalier rum."

OLD ROAD FUND

Howard and Chelle Hulford, the resort's founders, started the Old Road Fund in 1974, naming it after the village that sits just outside the resort's gates. Initially its purpose was to supply basic necessities to the community's neediest families, but it quickly out-grew these modest goals thanks to support from the resort and its guests. To date over $US1 million has been spent on various programs ranging from university scholarship assistance and medical relief to sports development.
