Why Offer Travel Insurance to Your Travelers?

As a travel advisor, you understand better than most that there are things that cannot be planned for. Travel insurance can help fill the gaps so that your travelers can navigate the “what ifs.” Plus, partnering with a travel insurance provider can directly benefit you and your business.

The top reasons that travel advisors offer travel insurance include:

Traveler Care and Protection

- When travelers face an unexpected turn in their journey, travel insurance offers both reassurance and choices for how they can get back on track.
- For plans that include 24/7 assistance, travelers have everyday access to experts who can guide them through travel emergencies.

Travel Advisor Support and Expertise

- Travel insurance providers can act as an extension of your business, providing travelers with additional support to help them travel with confidence.
- By demonstrating knowledge about travel insurance options and providers, you can showcase your expertise in all things travel — from planning and logistics to travel risk management.

You and your travelers have a lot of travel insurance options to choose from.

Why partner with Chubb Travel Protection?

- We offer comprehensive coverage and multiple plan options.
- Many international medical providers require you to pay upfront before they provide service, which can present challenges for travelers who need immediate assistance.
 - All of our plans include Advance Medical Payments, and we can cover up to the full medical expense limit of the plan purchased by your traveler.
- Children are covered on our plans at no additional cost.*
- All plans can be purchased up to 24 hours prior to the departure date.
- We pay competitive commissions that are automated to provide payment the month after the policy purchase.
- Our dedicated Chubb Travel Protection Sales Team is available every day of the year, and we pride ourselves on Reliable & Responsive service.

By partnering with a leading travel insurance provider, you can help distinguish your business and your unique value proposition.
