THE BEST WAY TO EXPERIENCE ALASKA IS WITH NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE

1 Custom-built for the best way to experience Alaska

- Our ships offer various ways to connect with the outdoors — The Waterfront, Observation Lounge, Spinnaker, Thermal Suite
- Premium contemporary experiences (accommodations)
- Family-friendly (kids' spaces, activities & accommodation options)

2 Variety of unique & specially curated itineraries

- Port rich itineraries ranging from 7- to 16-days
- Something for everyone (i.e. adventurer & families)
- Guaranteed glacier experiences (including Glacier Bay)
- Cruises through the Inside Passage
- Most number of sailings out of Seattle, including 7- to 11-day itineraries
- One-way cruises between Seward, Vancouver and Whittier

3 Immersive Alaska Experiences

- Itineraries thoughtfully curated to maximize time in port
- 11- to 14-day cruisetours (pre- or post-cruise, combining cruise with land-based experiences including Denali National Park and Reserve)
- Go Local shore excursions for authentic Alaska experiences
- Alaska expert on board (only for ships that visit Glacier Bay)
- Icy Strait Point (known for untouched wilderness & wildlife)

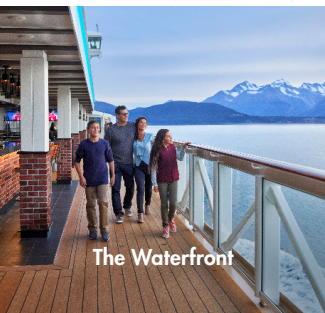

4 Variety of Ships for Everyone

- Youngest fleet cruising Alaska, including three of our Breakaway-Plus ships, Norwegian Encore, Norwegian Bliss, and Norwegian Joy— perfect for families
- Smaller ships allowing for a more intimate experience — Norwegian Jade, Norwegian Jewel, Norwegian Spirit, and Norwegian Sun

5 Norwegian Callouts

- More capacity in Alaska than ever before (up 55% from 2019 to 2022)
- Fire & Ice cruises (calling on ports in Hawaii and Alaska)
- Extended season offering unique experiences (Apr-Oct; i.e. opportunity to see the Northern Lights)
- Local and authentic investments in the region: Icy Strait Point (Hoonah) and Ketchikan (Ward Cove)
