INSPIRED BY A NEW GENERATION OF TRAVELERS, SONDER IS ON A MISSION TO MAKE A WORLD OF BETTER STAYS OPEN TO ALL

Step inside the exquisitely carved wooden doors at Chambers in New York City. Expansive windows and posh rooms, designed by renowned architect David Rockwell, are top of the menu here. Not to mention the lobby is downright stunning. Your room will include a personal workspace, cable TV, and a Roku for streaming.

On the West Coast in Santa Monica, The Beacon transports you back to Old Hollywood. Lounge in an art deco cabana and dip your toes in the hot tub. Each room features modern amenities with a classic touch — soaking bathtubs for winding down and a Roku TV to binge your latest series. Downstairs, the fitness room has free weights and treadmills.
